

TEMPLE ASSOCIATION OF T A U P
UNIVERSITY PROFESSIONALS

April 17, 2009

Dear Colleague,

Let me make a personal appeal to you. Please attend the rally on Monday, April 20 from 3:15 to 4:30. I know it's an extremely busy time for you. I know the feeling that one more person attending won't make a difference. But, it is time to stand up and be counted, literally! With the spring semester winding down and no contract agreement in sight, this is your chance to make your voice heard. Every voice counts. Even if you can come only for a short time, it counts. You can count on me to work for all our interests. I count on your support, too.

We all need to stand together to show Temple's administration that the women and men who make up the core of our University are not happy. After welcoming President Ann Weaver Hart with open arms, faculty and staff are confused by the hardball negotiations that she has directed, especially after coming to Temple exuding confidence in a new era of cooperation between management and TAUP.

Join us at our rally to demonstrate to President Hart that we want nothing more than respect and a fair contract. Let's all tell her that Temple can do better.

Sincerely,
Art Hochner
TAUP President
