Anne Feeney has been called "the best labor singer in North America" by Utah Phillips, and "a catalyst in the topical song movement" by Peggy Seeger. Please spread the word, come, and enjoy the music. Based in Pittsburgh, Anne Feeney performs music designed to "comfort the afflicted and afflict the comfortable." For the past 35 years she has performed thousands of concerts, including at demonstrations, rallies and picket lines. Learn more about Anne Feeney's songs, work and CD's at annefeeney.com, and sign up for her wonderful "Fellow Travelers' Advisory".

This event is sponsored by the Temple Student Labor Action Project (SLAP), TAUP (Temple Association of University Professionals, AFT Local 4531), CLUW (Coalition of Labor Union Women, Philadelphia Chapter), Jobs with Justice, Temple AFSCME (District Council 47, Local 1723), and TUGSA (Temple University Graduate Students Association, AFT Local 6290). The concert is made possible in part by a grant from the Pennsylvania Labor Education Center, Indiana University of Pennsylvania, of the PA State System of Higher Education
