

Register to Ride AFTPA buses to the ONE NATION MARCH

On Saturday, October 2, tens of thousands of people will march in solidarity at the Nation's Capital to protect our jobs, public education funding and our economy.

Our coalition is called ONE NATION Working Together, and we Washington, DC, on Saturday, October 2, to build a future of shared prosperity, not stubborn unemployment and a generation without adequate educational opportunities.

Click on the One Nation flag to register to ride free to the One Nation March.

AFTPA members, their families and friend are invited to join us. Click here to Register to Ride to Washington, DC, to call for:

- An economy that works for all;
- Good jobs, fair jobs, safe jobs and more jobs;
- Wall Street reform;
- Quality education for every child;
- Reform of our broken immigration system;
- And restoring workers' freedom to form unions and bargain collectively.

The Philadelphia Federation of Teachers, the largest AFT affiliate in the state, has set up an online registration system for those who want to ride the bus and march with us to send a message before the elections.
